The fullness of the floor length bouffant skirt was accented with side panels of French tulle with tiers of scalloped lace. Her shoulder length veil of French silk illusion was attached to a Queen Anne crown and she carried a spray of white carnations entwined with a crystal rosary.

Miss Linda Simpson of Hattiesburg was maid of honor; and Miss Mimi Monti, sister of the groom erved as bridesmaid.

Barry Stephens of Bay St. Louis was best man. James Medrick Robinson Jr. was groomsman and ushers were Richard Morreale and Edmund Fahey. The bridesmaids wore pale blue rayon crepe georgette street length dresses fashioned with gathered skirts lowered waistlines with front scartoped necklines and short sleeves. On their heads they wore matching bows with short veils. They carried sprays of plak earnations.

English dogwood and greenery decorated the Parish Hall for the reception following the ceremony. The bride's mother assisted in receiving, wearing a black and brown two-piece suit, black accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Monti chose a two-piece spring outfit of black and white tweed and black accessories. A shoulder bouquet of white carnations completed her ensemble. The bride's table, covered with a cutwork cloth, an heirloom of the Monti family, was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake flanked by crystal candelabra holding white tapers. Mesdames Joseph Favre, Charles Rhodes and Alan Young presided at the cake table. Mesdames Jake Morreale and Charles Benigno served punch and Mrs. Tony Benigno poured coffee. Misses Iris Koerner and Toni

Ann Blaize kept the bride's register. Tea girls were Misses Caroline Young, Sue Ann Buehler, Erin Heitzmann and Pat Green. For traveling the bride wore a yellow spring suit, matching accessories and a corsage of yellow cymbidium orchids.

Upon their return from a trip along the Gulf Coast, the couple will make their home in Hattick-burg where Mr. Monti is assoc-isted with WDAN T. V. Out of town Quests were Arra Bearing Robbinster.
